Son Held In Triple Killing

Couple and 24-Year-Old Daughter Bludgeoned to Death in Farm Home

SHAFER, Minn. — A farm couple and their 24-year-old daughter were found bludgeoned to death near here today.

The couple's son, a former mental patient, was held after telling a neighbor he was the killer.

Victims were Emory Person, 61, his wife, about 60, and their daughter, Lois, 24, all killed by blows on the head with a heavy sledge hammer found near the father's body.

Sheriff Henry Stream said that blood-spattered Douglas Person, about 30, was arrested near Taylors Falls after he had told a neighbor about the slaying and made a confusing telephone call to St. Cloud Hospital where he formerly was a patient.

The neighbor, Floyd George, and hospital authorities notified the sheriff and the younger Person was picked up.

Stream said the younger Person was released from the hospital some time ago and had been working on his parents' farm since. All four members of the family had attended a party for creamery patrons here Thursday night.

Stream said the slayings apparently occurred some time after the family returned home.

The daughter, whose body was found on a stairway, was dressed in her night clothes. Her parents were fully dressed.

The father's body was found in the basement of the farm home and his wife's body was in the pantry.

Authorities said the son apparently started driving toward Taylors Falls, on the Wisconsin border, after the slayings, but his car overturned about three miles east of his parents' home. He walked into Taylors Falls from where he called the St. Cloud Hospital.

Recover Auto Stolen from Former Local Priest

A 1957 automobile stolen from Rev. George Lally while in St. Louis earlier this week has been recovered in Little Rock, Ark.

Rev. Lally, former priest at St. Mary's Catholic church in Harrisburg, has been pastor of St. Joseph's church in Olney for the past several years.

Reports are that Rev. Lally was in St. Louis Monday and at the intersection of Sixth and Pine streets a youth drew a knife on him, robbing Rev. Lally of $35 and taking his automobile.

Little Rock police report that the automobile recovered there had license plates matching plates issued to Rev. Lally and papers in the car bore the priest's name. Two young men were in the car at the time it was recovered by Little Rock police.

Eisenhower Urges Support for 1957 Red Cross Fund Drive

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower urged Americans Thursday night to practice a "good neighbor" policy by supporting the 1957 Red Cross fund drive.

The President said in a nationwide radio-TV address opening the annual campaign that all Americans through the Red Cross can help their neighbors "across the street, across the nation or across the seas."

Mr. Eisenhower earlier proclaimed March as Red Cross Month and called for support of the organization's $95 million goal.

Peak Named to State Fair Post

SPRINGFIELD — J. Ralph Peak, Scott County Republican chairman and Winchester cattle raiser and horseman, today took over the job of general manager of the Illinois State Fair to succeed the fired Strother G. Jones.

Peak was appointed to the post Thursday by Gov. William G. Stratton.

Peak, 53, was moved up from the job of superintendent of the Division of Grain Inspection. Mrs. Peak is chairman of women's activities for the Republican State Central Committee.

Jones, who cleared out his desk and left the fairgrounds Thursday, said he was still trying, without success, to get an appointment with Stratton to discuss his dismissal.

When he was fired this week, Jones blamed his dismissal on "political intrigue and jealousy" on the part of State Agriculture Director Stillman J. Starnard.

Jones had been general manager of the fair for three years. The post pays about $8,000 a year. Stratton also announced appointment of Charles M. Burgess, an Aurora industrialist, to fill the unexpired term of William Wood Prince, Chicago, on the Illinois Toll Road Commission.

The term expires in October, 1957. Prince resigned recently.

Break-In at Eldorado

The sheriff's office today reported a break-in which occurred last night at the Eldorado Locker Co. grocery on Route 45 south of Eldorado last night. A quantity of candy and cigarettes was taken.

Nixon Arrives In Africa for Three-Week Tour

Huge Throng Greet Vice President at Moroccan Airfield

RABAT, Morocco — Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrived here today to begin an extensive three week tour of Africa aimed at countering Russia's campaign to communize the Dark Continent.

Nixon and his party, including his wife, Pat, landed at beflagged Rabat-Sale Airfield at 10:55 a. m. in two U. S. Military Air Transport Service DC6B's.

Crown Prince Moulay Hassan, cabinet officials and other government dignitaries and diplomats met the vice president at the airport.

The party was served the traditional repast of milk and dates before being driven to a meeting and lunch with the sultan.

A huge throng massed at the field which was festooned with the Stars and Strips and green-starred red Moroccan flags.

U. S. Ambassador Cavendish W. Cannon and Morocco's one-legged premier, Si Bekkai, were among the official greeters.

It is the first time a vice president of the United States has visited Africa. Sultan Mohammed V, Morocco's ruler, regarded it as so important he postponed for 24 hours an "urgently needed" operation for hernia.

The Nixon party will spend one night and two days in Morocco before resuming a 17,815-mile jaunt through eight North African countries.

Saturday night Nixon will leave Morocco for the British Gold Coast where he will participate in the transition of the colony to the independent nation of Ghana. From there he will continue to Liberia, Uganda, Ethiopia, Sudan, Libya and Tunisia.

Place Meters on New Parking Lot

The new city parking lot between Poplar and Locust streets, across from the Saline county jail, was being metered today and the meters will be in effect tomorrow.

Parking will be diagonal, Chief of Police Ross Lane said, with the entrance to the lot on Poplar street and the exit on Locust.

Approximately 40 meters will be placed on the lot.

The meters will be different than others in the city in that they will take nickels, dimes and quarters and that the time purchased can range from one to ten hours. The meters will not take pennies.

Chief Lane pointed out that a nickel will give one hour, a dime two hours, a quarter five hours, and that combinations of money can give any number of hours up to ten.

At present, the parking lines are only on the retaining walls, but when the lot is blacktopped later, the lines will be painted on this surface. At present the lot is rocked.

Remodel Building For New Home of Ronnie's Studio

The work on the Raley building adjacent to WSIL-TV on West Poplar street is for the new business home of Ronnie Doerge, operator of Ronnie's Studio.

A new front will be constructed on the building, the interior will be remodeled and redecorated and the building will be air-conditioned.

Inside will be a complete camera shop, which Ronnie announces will be the largest in southern Illinois, and his studio. The shop will sell products of all the noted manufacturers.

The new building will be occupied around the middle of April. Ronnie went in the studio business here in 1949.

Trial Set May 13

Playwright Arthur Miller Pleads Not Guilty to Contempt of Congress

WASHINGTON — Pulitzer prize-winning playwright Arthur Miller, husband of actress Marilyn Monroe, pleaded "not guilty" in a quiet, firm voice today to contempt of Congress charges.

Federal District Judge Charles F. McLaughlin scheduled Miller's trial for May 13 and fixed bond at $1,000.

Dressed in dark gray slacks, a tweed coat and black tie, the 41-year-old writer stood before McLaughlin with head erect and hands clasped in front of him.

"I plead not guilty," he said in a low, even tone. He was accompanied by his attorney, Joseph L. Rauh Jr., Washington.

Miller was indicted for contempt for his refusal to tell the House Committee on Un-American Activities last June whether some of his former associates were Communists.

The playwright testified that he himself never had been a member of the Communist Party nor under its discipline. But he refused "on grounds of conscience" to name persons at allegedly pro-Communist meetings in 1947.

Otto Nathan, 63, associate professor of economics at New York University, was arraigned on a similar contempt charge just before Miller.

Nathan made his plea of not guilty with considerable vehemence. Nathan is executor of the estate of the late physicist Albert Einstein.

McLaughlin set Nathan's trial for April 29 and fixed bond at $1,000.

CIPS Spokesman Says Company Will Cooperate in Rate Probe

SPRINGFIELD — A Central Illinois Public Service Co. spokesman said today the utility was prepared to cooperate with a proposed legislative investigation of electric power rates in southern Illinois.

The Illinois House Executive Committee Wednesday voted 25-6 to recommend adoption by the full House of a resolution to create a special five-member committee to investigate power rates in the southern third of the state and their effect on the region's economic growth.

Paul Wade of the CIPS public relations office said the utility did not yet have details on the proposed investigation. But he said if the full House votes to set up the investigation, CIPS will be prepared to "answer any questions they might have and cooperate fully."

Illinois Power Co. also serves southern Illinois and its rates, too, would come under scrutiny in the investigation.

The resolution for an investigation was sponsored by Rep. Bert Baker (D-Benton), who said some industries were discouraged from locating in southern Illinois because of high power rates.

The executive committee sent the resolution back to the floor of the House with a recommendation for adoption over the protests of Republican Majority Leader John W. Lewis Jr., Marshall, who said

Traffic Fatality Toll Shows Decline

TRAFFIC — The National Safety Council said Thursday night the traffic fatality toll dropped 3 per cent in January, marking only the second such decline in two years.

Traffic wrecks killed 2,860 persons in January, compared with a toll of 2,950 in the first month of 1956, the council said.

"We are hopeful that the two-year trend has been halted," said Ned H. Dearborn, council president. "The problem now is to sustain and increase this gain."

Sen. Kennedy Hits Proposal to Weaken Doctrine

WASHINGTON — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) said today a proposal by fellow Democrats to strip a $200 million aid proviso from the Eisenhower Doctrine would "embarrass our government and dismay friendly Middle Eastern nations."

Senate leaders pressed for a vote late today on the proposal, by Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) and others, to cut the $200 million aid clause out of the doctrine resolution.

The outcome could be close but administration backers believed they could defeat the Russell amendment. The State Department declared Thursday night the amendment would "largely destroy" the effect of the Eisenhower Doctrine.

The doctrine resolution, as modified by two Senate committees, would declare it to be U. S. policy to use armed force if the President deems it necessary to halt Communist aggression in the Middle East. The resolution also would authorize the President to spend up to $200 million of already-appropriated aid funds as he sees fit to shore up Mideast nations with money and arms.

Other congressional news: Elections—Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) proposed a "tough" new elections bill that would make candidates responsible for all money spent in their behalf. The bill would limit campaign spending on a per capita basis. The proposed scale would hold presidential campaign funds for each major ticket in 1960 to about $12.5 million.

Security—The Senate Internal Security subcommittee charged the "Communist underground apparatus" of the late Assistant Treasury Secretary Harry Dexter White brought about Nationalist China's economic destruction. The subcommittee said White and "his fellow conspirators" held back millions of dollars in gold shipments to China during World War II.

The United States, Britain, France and other maritime powers are expected to follow the Israeli speaker this afternoon and declare the Gulf of Aqaba an international waterway open to shipping of all nations.

This would run head-on into the Arab position that the waters are territorial waters of Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Jordan.

UNEF Occupation Planned—The United Nations is to send troops of its emergency force into the Gaza Strip to maintain order. Israel has stated it would never leave if administration of the area reverted to Egypt. Egypt was awarded control over the area by the 1949 Palestine armistice. The dispatch of UNEF troops there could still come under terms of the armistice, U. N. informants said.

Many issues remained to be solved—the extent of powers under which Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld could send troops into disputed areas; reluctance of such nations as India, Indonesia and Yugoslavia to turn their UNEF contributions into "occupation forces;" how to end assembly debate on the issue.

County Vote Canvass Gives House 2,421 Votes, Hanagan 2,205

Canvass of the Saline county vote in Monday's supreme court election showed that GOP nominee Byron O. House gained three votes over the unofficial total, making his majority 216 instead of 213.

Only change from the unofficial was in Harrisburg 1, where House picked up one vote and Francis Patrick Hanagan, his Democratic opponent lost two votes.

Final count was House 2,421 and Hanagan 2,205.

Will Withdraw Forces From Egypt Territory

Rumblings of Discontent Already Evident

By United Press
Israel announces to the world today its historic decision to withdraw its forces from Egyptian territory. But already there were rumblings of discontent in Jerusalem over the "surrender" and suspicions by the Arab world of a "deal."

Mrs. Gola Meir, the Israeli foreign minister, planned to go before the United Nations General Assembly this afternoon to report compliance with a U. N. resolution demanding Israeli withdrawal.

The decision, reached in Washington conferences between American, Israeli and French officials, eases the immediate threat of war in the Middle East but may not end the crisis.

Arabs Reported Suspicious
Egypt and her Arab neighbors were reported suspicious of any "deal" that would reflect on Egyptian sovereignty, and there were stirrings of rebellion in the Israeli government against what some politicians called Israel's surrender.

Britain welcomed the decision but the British press said the crux of the problem was still Egypt's insistence that a state of belligerency remained between Egypt and Israel.

An Israeli spokesman in New York said Israel would withdraw its forces behind the 1949 Palestine armistice lines in compliance with that resolution.

Insistence On Guarantees
Israel has insisted throughout the long negotiations it would never give up the Gaza Strip without guarantees against a repetition of Egyptian Fayadeen Commando attacks on Israeli villages, nor the Aqaba area without guarantees against the resumption of Egypt's blockade.

The United States, Britain, France and other maritime powers are expected to follow the Israeli speaker this afternoon and declare the Gulf of Aqaba an international waterway open to shipping of all nations.

This would run head-on into the Arab position that the waters are territorial waters of Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Jordan.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Speak to me nothing but truth in the name of Jehovah. — 1 Kings 22:16.

Too many imagine the decisions of synods are the voice of God. A little human modesty would save us from this error. Truth is eternal, truth is one. No one has a patent on it.

Happy Birthday, Voice

Editorial by Bruce Blossat
UNTIL the Voice of America was founded in World War II some 15 years ago, the United States never had made a systematic effort to tell the world its story.

The war taught us the absolute necessity of spreading abroad our full story—not only the activity of the war front but the portrait of American democracy at work. We realized that there was danger in allowing dictator countries to spray their verbal poison about in a vacuum.

At the outset, of course, we were evident amateurs as measured against the practical totalitarian propagandists. But through the years we have learned a great deal about the business of getting the truth told in the world's far corners.

OCCASIONALLY we have foolishly put too much stress on frivolous or sordid aspects of American life. Now and then we have momentarily aped our rivals in misguided effort to outdo them at their own game.

But, by and large, the Voice and the broader information services now lumped together in the U. S. Information Agency have done a splendid trail-blazing job for this country.

Seldom have they had enough money for best results. By comparison with Soviet propaganda efforts, ours look quite modest in scale. Yet we have succeeded in giving the world a much more understandable portrait of America than it had 15 years ago.

THERE are still grave problems aside from money. Our information work must be closely tied to official government foreign policy. That puts it in a kind of strait jacket.

But the argument is made that there is no help for this, since foreigners inevitably identify any federally sponsored utterance with official policy. The fear is they would be badly confused if the Voice "took off" on its own.

Neither the Voice nor related information services always draw top personnel. The caliber of our product moves up and down with the quality of our propagandists.

But today we have a sprawling information network with a backlog of a decade and a half's experience.

Its accounts of American life world affairs girdle the earth in broadcasts and other reports in 40 languages. President Eisenhower's anniversary broadcast went out over 78 transmitters. His English-speaking audience alone was figured at 200 million people.

The Voice of America tackles a tough assignment on which it can never let up. But it has earned its 15 birthday candles.

Is This Responsibility?

PRESIDENT Nasser of Egypt still is practicing blackmail by sunken ship, refusing to permit clearing of the last obstacles to Suez Canal traffic until Israel abandons the last inch of Egyptian soil.

Whatever one may think about the merits of Israel's position in this dispute, it is clear that Nasser is not by this action adding to his stature as an impartial manager of the canal which he admits is vested with an international interest.

If he can use control of the canal as a club against Israel, obviously he can employ it similarly in other cases. No settlement of Suez issues which leaves him room for this kind of free-swinging will be worth its name.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON SAYS:
Ambassador Alger Blames Lost Job On Summerfield; Cong. Bush Pulls FCC Strings For Pennsylvania Radio Station; Bush Owns Stock In Firm Seeking Broadcasting Advantage.

WASHINGTON. — Fred Alger, Ike's ambassador to Belgium, is sore as a boil over being relieved of his job. A staunch Republican who contributed $1,500 to Ike's last campaign, the ambassador didn't expect to be shelved.

Alger is especially sore because he is being recalled right in the middle of the big Belgian fair. He had worked hard to organize American exhibits to the fair.

Ambassador Alger once ran for governor of Michigan against "Soapy" Williams, but like all other Republicans who tackled "Soapy" he got licked. In matrimony he was more successful. He won the delightful Suzanne Dewey, daughter of ex-Congressman Charles Dewey of Chicago. She was a great asset to the U. S. in Brussels.

Alger is now going back to his home in Detroit with blood in his eye. He blames his forced resignation on Postmaster General Summerfield, a power in Michigan politics, and chairman of the GOP National committee in the 1952 election.

Alger confides to friends that he is going to see that Summerfield's political power in Michigan is shorn.

Note 1—Perhaps Alger's political demise may be due in part to the fact that he was not a heavy contributor. Though he put up $1,500, this was low compared with the $60,000 from Clare Boothe Luce former ambassador to Italy, and her husband, publisher of the supposedly impartial Time, Life, and Fortune; also compared with the $82,000 from John Hay Whitney, who becomes ambassador to England; and the $36,000 from Douglas Dillon, retiring ambassador to France.

Note 2—Dillon was one of the best postwar ambassadors to serve in France, but he got in wrong with the State Department when he told the truth about the real reason why the French and British pulled out of Suez. He said it was fear of Russia, not the United Nations.

MAIL BAG
Mrs. Douglas McKay, Salem, Ore. — I have your letter calling me a liar for reporting that your husband, the former secretary of the interior, left Washington prior to the inauguration because he was not invited to the ceremony. I note that the reason he did not attend was because he went on a vacation to Mexico on January 11. For your information, we did our best to call your husband, but were informed he was traveling.

However, officials of the Republican National committee who were handling invitations definitely stated that your husband was not and had not been invited. Nevertheless, I am delighted to accept your word, and may I also congratulate you on coming so vigorously to the defense of your husband. In my opinion, official Washington could use a few more ladies like you and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson. More power to you, and I'm delighted to know that Governor McKay is "in the pink of health and spirits."

FCC WIRE-PULLING
Still another case of backstage wire-pulling at the Federal Communications Commission has come to light, this time involving a Pennsylvania GOP congressman, Rep. Alvin R. Bush, who partly owns the very radio station for which he pressured.

The station is WHPA Williamsport, Pa., operated by Williamsport Radio Broadcasting Associates, in which Rep. Bush owns 400 shares of stock. The company wants to build a new radio station, WARC in near-by Milton, Pa.

The granting of an FCC permit to WHPA for a second station is vigorously opposed by competitors in Williamsport and Milton, who claim they couldn't survive against a two-station operation serving roughly the same area.

Such multiple ownership of radio or TV stations serving the same area is barred by FCC regulations, unless there are special reasons for granting an exception. Despite this rule, the FCC granted a permit to Williamsport Radio Broadcasting Associates, October 5, 1955, without hearings and without explaining why it waived its own regulation.

Competitors of WHPA subsequently protested the award, leading to oral arguments before the full commission on December 3, 1955.

CONGRESSMAN'S POCKETBOOK
Apparently worried over the delay, Manager Woodrow W. Ott of Williamsport Radio Broadcasting Associates wrote to his fellow stockholder, Rep. Bush, asking that Bush and Sen. Edward Martin (R., Pa.) intercede with FCC Chairman George McConaughy.

With a financial stake in the outcome, Bush should have stayed out of the case. However, he readily complied. First he had a staff member contact McConaughy's office by telephone. Then he followed through with a letter to the FCC chairman, January 8, 1957.

Whether Congressman Bush's intercession influences the final FCC decision isn't as important as the fact that a congressman exerted pressure on a supposedly independent body in favor of a radio station in which he is financially interested.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

All of the beauty aids which add to human attractiveness or minimize physical unattractiveness are as nothing compared to the beauty aids which God offers for the soul. Our thinking may be twisted. Our morals may even be grotesque. Our hatred may have ruined our personality for other people.

Regardless of the condition of our spirit, God will take us and refashion us into beings worthy of acceptance. Many a person has been lost in human sin and has been transformed into a character who can serve both God and his fellowmen.

The life of a person becomes beautiful with the aid of love, faith, hope, and service. Prayer touches up more blemishes than any human aid one can find.

Leaders Enroll for Vacation Courses at Philmont Scout Ranch

Three Egyptian Council Boy Scout Leaders have already enrolled for "Family Vacation Training" course at the Philmont Scout Ranch, according to R. C. Davenport, Harrisburg, Council Training chairman.

Col. Emmett Cockrum, Carbon-dale, Organization and Extension chairman for the area, will participate in the operating committee course from August 21 to 27. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Cockrum and their three children. Jacob Blecheisen, Rosiclare,

Finance Committee member, will take the finance course from June 26 to July 2. Mrs. Blecheisen and two children will also attend. Edward Marselli, Metropolis, Nile District Committee chairman, will attend the district chairman's course, from August 14 to August 20, accompanied by Mrs. Marselli.

The Philmont Scout Ranch, in the Rocky Mountains of northern New Mexico, each year provides a series of courses for all adults interested in the Boy Scout program. Special activities are arranged for wives and children who accompany the leaders. Rates are arranged on a non-profit basis.

'Fire Magic' Show Presented At High School

Startling pranks with fires and explosions formed part of today's program of the Harrisburg high school students. In a "Fire Magic" show, Dr. Llewellyn Heard, research chemist for the Standard Oil company, explained the scientific principles behind fire.

Bubbles of gas rose through water and burst into flame upon reaching the air. An invisible drawing suddenly began burning. A bright fire blazed up with only a handful of iron wire as fuel.

Explosive soap bubbles showed how widely a single fuel may vary in its speed of burning. When they contained hydrogen alone, they burned lazily; with oxygen added, they exploded so violently they rattled the windows.

To show that fires are also affected by catalysts, Dr. Heard invited his audience to try to burn a lump of sugar. The sugar would not burn without a catalyst, he pointed out, and he found the needed catalyst in the ashes of a cigarette.

"These are only a few of the factors that affect burning," Dr. Heard said. "Fire is the oldest chemical reaction used by man, yet we know comparatively little about it. Many millions of dollars are spent every year in research on fire and fuels. And that research has been worth all the money spent on it. It is why two gallons of today's gasoline will do the work of three gallons of the gasoline made in 1925. Research is also the main reason why today's better gasoline cost no more than old-fashioned gasoline."

SIU to Offer Three Courses for Graduate Nurses

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Southern Illinois University's Department of Nursing will offer three courses for graduate nurses this spring according to Miss Virginia Harrison, chairman. Each course will allow four quarter hours of college credit.

"Inter-personal Relationship in Nursing," an extension course, will be taught on Tuesday nights, beginning March 12, at Miner's Hospital in West Frankfort. Miss Twila Hoffman, SIU assistant professor of nursing, will conduct the 6:30 to 9 p. m. classes for 16 weeks. Course fee is $13.05.

A course in general nursing will be taught on Thursday nights, beginning March 28, on the University campus. Classes will be conducted from 6:30 to 9 p. m. in Room 101, Main Building, by Mrs. Hazel LeFevre, nursing instructor. Four additional class meetings will be arranged.

Miss Harrison will teach the third course, "Introduction to Administration in Nursing Services," on Wednesdays and Fridays in Room 101, Main Building. First of the two-hour sessions, beginning at 9 a. m., will be March 27. Fee for the on-campus courses is $15.50.

Welding Demonstration At HTHS Monday Night

Demonstration on all phases of welding will be given Monday night at the Harrisburg Township high school. For this reason all classes will meet on Monday night of next week.

Prices Received By Farmers Show Decline

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department's monthly price report showed today the prices farmers received for crops and livestock fell two per cent during the month ended Feb. 15.

However, the overall price picture showed that farm prices received were still three per cent above those of a year ago.

At the same time, the cost of living and production supplies purchased by farmers rose nearly one per cent to a record high. The rise brought the index of prices paid by farmers to 294 per cent of the 1910-14 base period.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson called the price drop in February "discouraging."

"It is always discouraging when farm prices decline during a month," Benson said, "but we must remember that on the overall picture prices received now stand three per cent above February of a year ago."

Benson said "There is nothing in this report which calls into question the outlook as reported by the department last fall—an outlook for further modest improvement in farm prices and farm income during 1957."

The combination of the general increase in production and living expenses and the drop in prices received caused the parity ratio to fall to 80 per cent, the post-World War II low point first established in November, 1955.

SPRINGFIELD — Prices paid to Illinois farmers were 8 points lower on the all commodity index on Feb. 15 than on Jan. 15, the state-federal Crop Reporting Service said today.

However, the service said, the February all commodity index was 12 points, or 6 per cent, above the level of a year ago.

Industrial Committee Believes $10 Million Uranium Plant Assured for Metropolis

METROPOLIS, Ill. (UP)—A member of the Metropolitan Industrial Committee thinks "beyond a doubt" that a 10-million-dollar uranium plant will be built near here.

Allied Chemical & Dye Co., New York, according to present plans will build a plant to process uranium for the Atomic Energy Commission.

Allen Brannon, the Industrial Committee member, said Allied engineers have finished a two-day survey of the 600-acre site on the northwest side of Metropolis. The site was occupied by the Wyoming Tie & Timber Co. until a year ago.

Allied Chemical & Dye's options on the land expired Thursday, but have been replaced with escrow agreements.

Brannon said a formal announcement from the company could be as long as six weeks away if it waits for clearance of all land titles. "But I expect an announcement on selection of our site any day now," he said.

Enough additional power would be provided by the AEC from its Joppa plant nearby to service the operation. Officials say labor, water and rail facilities present no great problems.

The plant would employ from 280 to 400 production workers, and would be in production by the end of 1958.

O'Keefe Lumber Co. Franchised as Frigidaire Dealer

The announcement is being made today that the O'Keefe Lumber company of Carrier Mills now is a franchised Frigidaire dealer and will handle a complete line of Frigidaire products.

Freeman O'Keefe, appliance sales manager of the O'Keefe Lumber Co., in making the announcement said "We are happy to be a Frigidaire dealer as we have always tried to sell first class merchandise and know that in Frigidaire we will be handling the best."

O'Keefe Lumber Co., former Crosley dealers, also have been authorized to sell Maytag and RCA appliances. In addition to a complete line of Frigidaire appliances, O'Keefe's will have Maytag laundry equipment and RCA radio and TV.

Work is now underway to enlarge the service department and O'Keefe service personnel have been factory trained and the company can now give complete, fast service on all appliances sold.

Mr. O'Keefe also stated he planned to purchase appliances in large quantities, thereby getting the best possible price and the savings would be passed along to the customer.

Metropolis Man Freed on Bond On Murder Charge

METROPOLIS, Ill. (UP)—A Metropolis used car dealer who is charged with murder has been released on $5,000 bond provided by himself.

Lincoln Walbright, 34, waived preliminary hearing Thursday when arraigned before Police Magistrate Norris Shaw.

Walbright is charged with the murder of George Davis, 33, an unemployed laborer, from whom he once repossessed a car.

Authorities said the men apparently argued in a tavern Tuesday night then stepped outside together. A barmaid saw signs of a scuffle through a window. Patrons found Davis lying on the sidewalk in front of the tavern.

An autopsy report said Davis' death was due to a "brain hemorrhage and spinal fracture."

Deputy Coroner Herbert Goyert said an inquest probably will be held next week.

Woman Fugitive From Prison Fights Extradition

CHICAGO (UP)—A fugitive from a Michigan prison, who had been living a quiet family life here was free on bond today pending the outcome of her fight against extradition.

Mrs. Janet Gaik, 31, has admitted escaping from a prison in Plymouth, Mich., where she was serving a 5-to-30-year term for robbery.

When arrested last December, she was living with her husband, John, 26, and their 5-year-old child, Geri Kaye. The Gaiks were married after her escape.

Mrs. Gaik's attorney, Joseph Nowak, said prospects for her release were not bright. He said she probably would have to return to jail unless Michigan drops the extradition proceedings. Gov. William Stratton signed extradition papers Thursday, despite the protests of 600 neighbors of the Gaiks.

Describing her as a model wife and mother, they recommended clemency.

SIU Speaker Sees Need for Health Scientists

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—A U. S. Public Health Service official predicts a "crying need for health scientists" in citing a projected national population increase.

Dr. Harold Granning spoke on "careers opportunities in health" at Southern Illinois University.

The regional director said it is predicted that the population of the United States will hit the 206 to 228 million mark by 1975.

"This means we will have to begin tooling up soon to meet the health needs of the people," said Granning.

"Health departments and agencies everywhere are shouting for trained help now. And the need for more people will get more severe."

GOP Members Blast Attack On Private Power

WASHINGTON (UP)—Republican members of a House Government Operations subcommittee have accused subcommittee Democrats of using "insult and vilification" to discredit private power companies.

The Republicans issued a minority report Thursday assailing subcommittee Democrats for charging that six utility firms issued a pamphlet to the Interior Department to try to "brainwash" officials.

The Democrats said in a majority report that the utilities were trying to sabotage the federal power program.

The Democrats called for a new investigation of attempts by private utility companies to "influence" government officials.

Republican members retorted that the utilities had only exercised their right to "speak freely."

Two Illinois Men Die in Plane Crash

BEAUFORT, Mo. (UP)—The bodies of two Illinois men have been removed from the wreckage of their private plane which crashed in a flooded backwoods area.

The Missouri Highway Patrol identified the victims as Tom Jennings, 43, a Bartonville pharmacist, and Lyle Smith, 45, Peoria, a deputy sheriff of Peoria County.

Officials said the pair left Greater Peoria airport Thursday morning, destined for Hot Springs, Ark. They said neither man was carrying a parachute when they took off.

The wreckage was strewn in six feet of backwater from the flooded Bourbeuse River. Beaufort is about 50 miles southwest of St. Louis.

Marriage Licenses

Rabies Vaccination Tags Now Available

The county clerk's office announced that the 1957 rabies vaccination tags are now available at the office to county veterinarians. This year's tags are blue.

Learning Blocks Hidden Handicaps May Prevent Intelligent Child from Learning

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—Hidden handicaps may prevent an intelligent child from learning to read or write.

These handicaps, which educators call "learning blocks," may be physical or psychological. When parents and teachers fail to recognize their symptoms, a child is unjustly labelled as ignorant, lazy or recalcitrant.

Learning blocks can be overcome, sometimes quite easily, when they are accurately diagnosed and properly treated.

Authority for these statements is Mrs. Marion Kingsbury, director of Washington's Remedial Education Center. This privately supported institution is one of the nation's oldest and most respected diagnostic clinics for children with educational problems.

Mrs. Kingsbury said in an interview that there are six broad types of learning blocks that often appear in children of average or above-average intelligence. Two of the most common are poor eyesight and poor hearing.

"Many a child is falling behind in his schoolwork today because he simply can't see or hear what's going on," Mrs. Kingsbury said. "Unless they are quite acute, these handicaps are often unrecognized by parents and teachers."

Many Are Immature

To Drop Murder Charges Against Bennie Bedwell

CHICAGO (UP)—Murder charges against Edward L. (Bennie The Dishwasher) Bedwell in the unsolved deaths of the Grimes sisters will be dropped, State's Atty. Benjamin Adamowski said today.

Bedwell, under questioning by officials of the Cook County sheriff's office, admitted slaying the Grimes sisters, then repudiated his confession. He was released on $20,000 bond, on grounds that there was no strong link connecting him with the crime. But the murder charge filed against him has stood.

Adamowski said the murder charge would be withdrawn when Bedwell appears in Justice of the Peace Court Monday.

Joint Committee Urges Tax Relief For Small Business

WASHINGTON (UP)—The joint House-Senate Economic Committee urged Congress today to give small businesses some tax relief this year.

But the committee supported President Eisenhower's position that this is no time for a general tax cut.

"General tax reduction at this time would impose excessive burdens on monetary controls for curbing inflationary pressures," the committee said in its official report on Mr. Eisenhower's annual economic report to Congress.

The committee made no specific recommendations for easing taxes on small businesses. Mr. Eisenhower has recommended that Congress consider such tax relief "that would involve only a minimum loss of revenue."

Medical Groups Combat Apathy To Polio Vaccine

CHICAGO (UP)—Medical authorities today pushed a campaign to wipe out the threat of future serious polio outbreaks in the nation.

The attack is aimed against the crippling, death-dealing disease itself and at overcoming public apathy towards the safe vaccine.

The American Medical Assn. has asked all state, county and city medical societies to devote the next two months to vaccinating as many persons as possible between the ages of 6 months and 40 years.

An AMA spokesman said less than half of the nation's potential polio victims have been inoculated.

If 50 per cent of the remainder can be vaccinated before the start of the polio season, the nation will be well on its way toward ending all but the vestiges of the great epidemic, the spokesman said.

Although this was the official starting date for the campaign, mass vaccination programs already were underway in some cities.

Physicians, who cut their fees in many cases, concentrated on the under-40 age bracket because it accounts for 90 per cent of the cases.

Two Moroccans Killed When U. S. Plane Explodes Over Village

CASABLANCA, Morocco (UP)—Two Moroccans were killed and two injured when the engine of a U. S. Air Force F86 Sabrejet fighter exploded over a village 15 miles south of here Wednesday night, the Air Force reported today. The pilot, unidentified, parachuted safely.

Stratton Signs Bill to Add Six Circuit Judgeships

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Gov. William G. Stratton has signed into law a bill to add a total of six circuit judgeships in three Illinois areas.

The bill, which cleared the Legislature Wednesday and was signed by the governor Thursday, would:

Make Du Page County a circuit by itself with three judges. Du Page has been in a four county circuit with four judges. The number of judges in the old 18th Circuit will be reduced to three to handle the remaining three counties.

Make Lake and McHenry Counties one circuit and Winnebago and Boone counties another circuit, each with three judges. All four counties have been in one circuit with a total of four judges.

Put St. Clair, Randolph, Perry, Washington and Monroe counties in a new circuit with three judges and leave Madison and Bond counties in the old 3rd Circuit, also with three judges. All seven counties have been in the 3rd Circuit, with four judges.

Swimming Student Dies at U. of Illinois

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP)—Glenn William Davis, 18, Albany, died Thursday while taking part in a University of Illinois swimming class.

Cause of Davis' death was not immediately determined.

U. of I. security officer Tom Morgan said the class in intermediate swimming had just begun when fellow students saw Davis' body under the water.

He was taken to McKinley Hospital on the campus where all attempts to revive him failed.

NO HIT-OR-MISS Rx's FOR YOU

The prescription of years ago was largely a hit-or-miss affair. If one drug didn't work, the doctor tried another... then another. Often, none of the drugs did much good. But the day of the hit-or-miss prescription is no more. Now, the doctor knows exactly what each drug can do. The first one he prescribes is usually the right one—the one drug that does a perfect job of curing. That's why...

Mantle Pro and Con by Joe DiMaggio—No. 1
Sulking, Bad Pitches Still Mickey's Flaws
(Editor's Note: Here, for the first time, Joe DiMaggio tells of the Mickey Mantle of today—and the future. This is the first of three dispatches.)
By JOE DI MAGGIO
At Told to Harry Grayson
NEA Sports Editor
MIAMI, Fla. (NEA)—I knew Mickey Mantle was something special the first time I saw him. That was in the fall of 1950, when he came to Sportsman's Park at St. Louis to bat batting practice with the Yankees.
He was only 18, but had just finished a phenomenal season with the Joplin of the Western Association and we all knew about him.
Tommy Byrne, a left-hander, was pitching batting practice and Mickey batted right-handed. He was real nervous and the best he could do was hit a lot of foul balls, not hard ones, either, and after a couple of swings he would step out of the box, then get in there for another try.
"STICK IN THERE until you hit a good one, kid," we started telling him. Then he straightened out a couple and you didn't have to be a ballplayer to see this was no ordinary rookie.
Mickey finished the last road trip with us and I came away convinced this was a boy with a deep and solid core.
All he has to do to take his place among the all-time greats who have played this game is remain sound. I played alongside Mickey when he was 19 and I can't recall a youngster in my time who had his physical qualities.
IN FACT, MICKEY'S strength is a reason for one of the remaining faults in his baseball makeup. He overwings and because of his power he feels he can hit anything, so he still goes after too many bad pitches. Mickey struck out 99 times last year. If he ever cut that total to anything resembling the 29 strikeouts made by Yogi Berra last season, it would be all over.

His other flaw is a tendency to sulk when in a batting slump. To be a complete ballplayer, Mickey has to correct this. Baseball hasn't had a great hitter yet who hasn't gone into slumps. But they stayed on top because they worked—not sulked—when they got into it.
If I were Mickey, I'd make sure any trouble at the plate would stay right there—I wouldn't carry it out to centerfield with me. A centerfielder standing out there thinking about his hitting is likely to wind up forgetting about the man at bat. Don't concentrate on him and you're helping him to a lot of base hits.
Tebbetts Sees Five-Team National Race; Believes Cardinals Will Be Tough
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts envisioned a five club race for the 1957 National League pennant today, putting the Pirates and the Cardinals in the contending group along with the Dodgers, Braves and his own Redlegs.
The plump, ruddy-faced Tebbetts, starting his third season as manager of the Redlegs, is high on the chances of his own club, but predicted the race this coming season could go down right to the wire just as it did last year.
"They're all saying the Dodgers, Braves and my own team are the clubs to beat," the plain-spoken former star catcher observed. "But in my book, they're making a mistake by overlooking the Pirates and the Cardinals."
Ennis To Help
He predicted the addition of Del Ennis and pitchers Sam Jones and Jim Davis "will make a big difference in the Cardinals."
"I figure that if Stan Musial,

Larsen Settles For $17,000 Yankee Contract
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Don Larsen, the World Series perfect game hero, apparently is somewhat less than perfect when it comes to negotiating for an extra big basket of that green folding stuff.
This was made clear Thursday when the 27-year-old pitcher who found immortality last Oct. 9 signed with the New York Yankees for $17,000—about $10,000 less than he was demanding. Larsen made $12,500 in 1956.
Although he had only an 11-5 record during the American League season, Larsen insisted in January that he would get "about $27,500 or might wind up tending bar." This extravagant "threat" cut no ice, however, with General Manager George Weiss, who made it clear from the start that one perfect game hadn't erased the memory of an imperfect season.

Longden Rides 5,000th Winner
ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Jockey Johnny Longden set his sights today on 600 riding wings in his ageless turf career after having achieved his 5000th victory Thursday at Santa Anita.
"I don't see why I can't go on for 6000 wins," Longden said, "and I intend to keep on riding as long as I feel I can do justice to my mounts."
The 5000th victory was notable chiefly as a milestone in the 47-year-old rider's career. Every time Longden has ridden a winner since last Sept. 3 he sets a record. It was on that day he surpassed the previous all-time riding mark of 4870 winners held by Sir Gordon Richards of England.
But victory No. 5000 was still the "big one" today for Longden as he awaited the presentation of a 16-year-old racing cup between the fourth and fifth races. Santa Anita racing director Carleton F. Burke was to make the presentation in a public ceremony.
"It was a relief to get it done," Longden said after he brought home Bente in the fourth race to surpass the magic number. He had been trying for that victory since Tuesday when he rode his 4999th winner but it eluded him for ten mounts.

BY BILL MELTON
A first round game in the Norris City regional tourney that definitely will have to be considered a toss-up is the Eldorado vs. Ridgway contest, final game of the first night of play.
Ridgway has the better record of 10 victories against six losses as compared to Eldorado's 9 wins and 15 defeats. But Eldorado has played the tougher schedule.
Also, in one meeting during the season, Eldorado won a close 61-59 game from Ridgway on the losers' floor.
Ridgway will feature the tourney's most publicized player in Roger Suttner, 6-9 plus sophomore center.
Suttner has scored a total of 698 points in twenty five games for an average of just a shade under 28 per contest. In rolling up this large number of points Suttner has shot approximately 700 from the field and something over 800 from the free throw line.
He also is a fine rebounder and adds much to the Ridgway defense by blocking shot attempts by the opposition.
Teaming with Suttner are senior and captain Pat Lawler, 6-1 forward, who was sidelined early in February with a broken foot; Don Ballard, 5-8 senior; Ernie Clifford, 6-1 junior; Bob Roark, 5-10 sophomore; David Drone, 5-10 junior; James Ambrose, 5-11 junior.
Lawler, in 20 games, scored 272 points; Ballard had 252, Clifford 281, Drone 94, Ambrose 97.
Ridgway won championship honors in the Equality Invitational tourney and was runner-up to Rosiclare in the Greater Egyptian conference tourney. In regular GEC play Ridgway finished in second place, winning 9 and losing 3, two defeats coming at the hands of Rosiclare and the other at Galatia.
Eldorado, in winning 9 of 24 games, played lots of close ones and during the season scored a total of 1,420 points, only 41 less than the opposition.
Donald Kingery, senior forward, paced the Eldorado attack with a total of 347 points. Leonard Willis, junior guard, was second.

Gonsalves-Rosi Bout Tonight
NEW YORK (AP)—Lightweight contender Johnny Gonsalves, king of the "fancy Dans," matches his speed and guile tonight against the stunning punches of Italian Paolo Rosi in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Although Rosi is unranked among 135-pound contenders, the baldish belter from Italy is favored at 9-5 because of his punch over third-rated Gonsalves of Oakland, Calif., the highest-ranked "cutie pie" in any division. Johnny has an unbeaten string of 13, marred by one draw.

BUFFALO GRASS

By Frank Gruber

Copyright 1956 by Frank Gruber. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Chad Morgan and Joe Jagger anxiously await the arrival of the first herd of cattle being driven from Texas to the railroad at Pawnee City, Kan.

Toward evening the rain stopped, but the clouds remained black and threatening. Morgan continued on in the pitch-darkness until his horse began to stumble too often. He came then to a coulee and halted. He hobbled the horse, removed the saddle and saddlebags and huddled against a bank, ate some of the jerky.

He was wet and miserable. He huddled against the bank and dozed. He dreamed of Texas longhorns and the howling of a herd caused him to grimace in his sleep. Then he awakened and still heard the howling of many cattle.

He caught up his saddle, found the bay and saddled it. Removing the hobbles, he vaulted into the wet saddle and sent the horse southward up a slow incline.

As he neared the top, there was a rift in the clouds and a bright three-quarter moon lit up the prairie.

Straight ahead, in the hollow of a gentle valley, Morgan saw the most wonderful sight on earth . . . grazing cattle.

Texas longhorns. Hundreds of them.

There was no fire in the Texas camp, but he found it by the chuck wagon and as he rode down, he was welcomed by the clicking of rifles and revolvers being cocked. "Don't shoot!" he called. "I'm from Pawnee City."

"That's right," said Morgan. "Your name's Hastings, I believe."

"Dan Hastings, with 2,000 head of the wettest Texas cattle you ever saw. Where's this here Pawnee City?"

"A day's easy ride," said Morgan. "maybe two days for cattle." He shook his head. "Two wet days."

"Cattle buyers there?"

"They're waiting."

The tent saloon had reopened for business and both Jagger and Morgan had themselves partaken of a cupful of raw whiskey.

They stood now on the newly completed veranda of the Drovers Hotel, looking down Main Street, past the saloon and general store, down the line of stakes that marked out the street. Also standing on the hotel veranda were three very nervous cattle buyers. One of them looked at a huge gold watch.

A gun banged somewhere in the distance, then another and another. A shout went up among the carpenters gathered around the tent saloon.

"Here they come!"

The first longhorn suddenly appeared a quarter of a mile away. He was followed by a brace of steers, then a long, thin line of steers, charging along, three and four abreast. Gun firing continued as the Texas cowboys hazed the longhorns between the rows of stakes, toward the town of Pawnee City.

The cattle buyers charged down the stairs, began running up the street. They were blockaded by the carpenters and laborers who also were surging forward.

The cattle came on, bawling and wild, and the humans gave way on both sides. Texas cowboys, almost as wild as their charges, came galloping down the street, keeping the steers in a tight group and turning them at the end of the street toward the stockyards and loading pens. It was savage work for the cowboys, but they forced a thousand head into the several pens, then drove the balance of the herd across the railroad tracks onto the lush prairie graze beyond. There the herd milled around and finally settled down to the grazing.

Morgan, coming from the lean-to railroad depot, sought Jagger and the others, and guessing that they would be in the tent saloon, made his way toward it.

Morgan forced his way inside, saw Jagger with the cattle buyers and the Texas men, and caught his eye.

Jagger eased himself out of the group.

"The railroad agent just wired St. Louis about the cattle cars," Morgan told Jagger.

Jagger winced, took Morgan's arm and led him to one side. "I've been telling these people that they're already on the way. Be here tomorrow."

"That isn't true," said Morgan. "The cars are actually in Kansas City, the agent tells me, but no order has been given to send them here."

He looked over his shoulder at the cattleman and the buyers. "We've got to stall them." He winked at Morgan, went back to the cattleman and the group around them. He said a few words to them. There was a quick exchange between Hastings, the drover and the cattle buyers and then Hastings let out a roar.

"Sold!"

Morgan joined the group.

"What's sold?"

"My herd," said Hastings. "Mr. Palmer here has bought the whole shebang for $40,000."

"But I don't take delivery until the stock cars are here," warned Palmer, the cattle buyer.

"They'll be here tomorrow," declared Jagger. He met Morgan's eyes. "The day after, at the very latest."
